BEES and TREES

New guests have just arrived at Penmaenuchaf Hall ...we now have four beehives proudly sitting in the grounds. We are hoping these delightful little honey bees will produce some delicious

Welsh honey from the many trees and wildflowers in our grounds. They will certainly enjoy foraging in our orchard and wild garden area by the lake. Look out for honey products next time you visit!

Forthcoming Events

Winter Art Exhibition
20th February to 11th March. Artists Wendy Murphy, Ann Bridges, Valerie Land & Mighangel Jones will have their work on display. Look out for full details in our next newsletter in January.

St. Valentines Special Dinner
February 14th - the day for all romantics. Book early to secure your table.

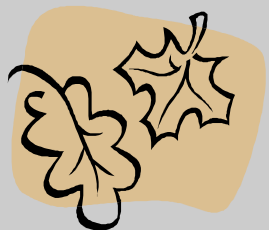

Wine Education at Penmaenuchaf Hall

Wine ~ such an interesting and evocative topic, once you start learning you are guaranteed to be hooked, Mark and Lorraine at Penmaenuchaf Hall are living proof! So by popular demand we are continuing our wine education programme and will be hosting the Wine and Spirit Education Trust, Level 2, Intermediate Award in Wines and Spirits over an exciting three-day course from 13th February 2012.

It is suitable for those with little previous experience. Once qualified, holders of the WSET Level 2 Award in Wines and Spirits will be able to interpret the labels of the major wines and spirits of the world and give basic guidance on appropriate selection and service, as well as understand the principles of wine tasting and evaluation. It will leave you wanting to learn more! A perfect gift to a loved one for a Birthday or Christmas treat or the perfect excuse for some 'self improvement' therapy! A fee of £365.00 include study material, FREE box of tasting glasses, samples, tuitions and examination.
